

North-South Corridor

Northern Connector Project

New traffic lights for Port Wakefield and Hodgson Roads junction, Bolivar

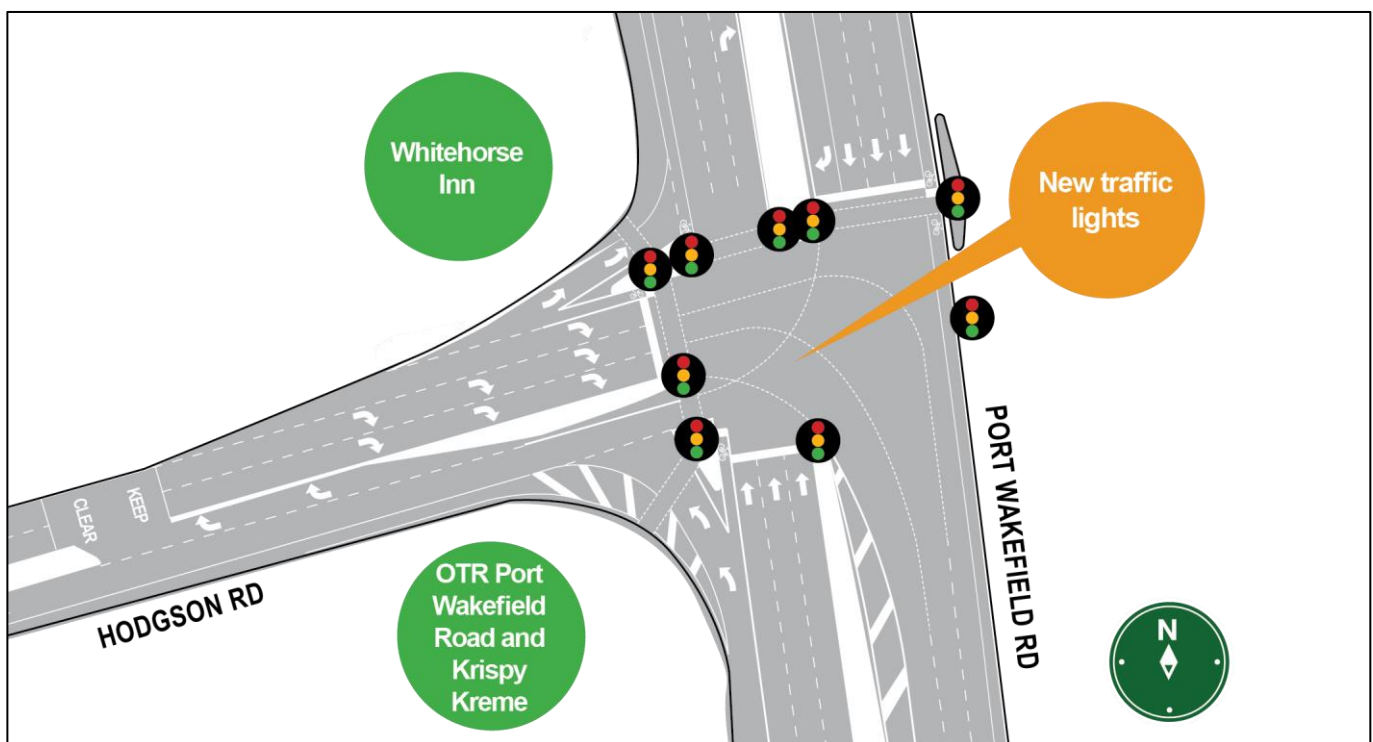

As part of the Northern Connector Project, new traffic lights will be operational at the junction of Port Wakefield and Hodgson Roads providing safe access from the Northern Connector.

From 5am, Friday, 14 February, new traffic lights will be in operation with new line markings to guide motorists and pedestrians (refer to map).

Motorists may experience short term delays during the early hours of Friday morning during testing and commissioning of the new traffic lights. Please take care driving through the area and observe all signage.

Ongoing works: Speed and lane restrictions will continue to apply in the vicinity of the junction including Port Wakefield, Bolivar and Hodgson Roads for the completion of the Bolivar Interchange.

Thank you for your patience as these important works are undertaken.
